There is one or two things certain: Colorado has a fine bunch of corrupt politicians, or else a lot of cheerful liars.

Venezuela has received a demand to release the imprisoned sailors, and "It was the Dutch" who made the request.

In Berlin young men have formed a society whose members pledge themselves to snatch birds from the hats of women.

Ex-President Cleveland arrived in Florida Tuesday, and is enjoying the East Coast fishing. He is in the State solely for pleasure and recuperation.

A peculiar fact is that 1905 began on Sunday and will end on Sunday, and therefore has fifty-three Sundays. This will not occur again in 110 years.

Pittsburg, Pa., will have more Monongahela than she can handle for a few days on account of the spring freshets, and some Pittsburgers can put away lots of it.

COLORADO'S SHAME.

The people of Colorado certainly cannot expect to be congratulated, but rather commiserated on the late development in the gubernatorial middle. The ousting of Governor Adams by the assembly, the seating of Governor Peabody, his resignation and the swearing-in of Lieutenant-Governor McDonald as governor, as planned to defeat the will of the people, gave the State the worst phase of a political scheme known for years.

The action of the Republican Legislature in ousting Governor Adams, who, on the face of the returns, was elected by a majority of more than 10,000, and the seating of Governor Peabody, even with the expressed determination of the latter to resign as soon as he should have been inducted into office, appears to have been high-handed in the extreme. It was proven that Governor Adams had a handsome majority, but the election was thrown aside by the Legislature.

Colorado politics have been in a condition that no doubt needed cleansing for several years. Corporate greed has dominated affairs to an extent that has driven the people to desperation, and there is no denying the popular favor shown to Governor Adams. As matters now stand, a Republican who was elected to the second place on the ticket has been given the first through the manipulations of the judiciary and the action of the Legislature. Whether he will be able to restore order in the commonwealth remains to be seen, but there should be an awakening to put an end to such barefaced rascality in the interest of corporations, to the detriment of all other legitimate business.

In his address to the people Governor Adams said: "I would rather stand in the hearts of the people as I am today, than to stand under the capital dome of any State of the United States as chief executive."

JUDGE LIDDON VINDICATED.

The following from The Daily Capital, Tallahassee, of Wednesday, March 23, is self-explanatory:

"The charges brought by certain members of the Marianna bar against former Chief Justice Benjamin S. Liddon of the Florida Supreme Court in disbarment proceedings before Judge Charles B. Parkhill of the first judicial circuit, have fallen flat. The evidence has now all been heard by Judge Parkhill, and most of the charges have been summarily dismissed. The opinion seems to be widespread that the remaining specifications will take the same course.

"The most serious of the charges against Judge Liddon, that of attempting to bribe Senator C. L. Wilson of the Legislature of 1901, resulted in a verdict of 'not guilty,' on request of State's Attorney Kehoe himself, who was conducting the prosecution. When Senator Wilson was put on the stand he stated unequivocally that no such attempt had been made. Judge Liddon, he said, had talked with him relative to the constitutionality of a bill and had told him that he did not think the bill ought to pass, but no money or other consideration had been offered.

"At the conclusion of Senator Wilson's testimony State's Attorney Kehoe asked that a verdict of not guilty on this charge be entered, and this was so ordered by Judge Parkhill."

The other charges have been considered baseless, and it is stated that they are not considered disbarable, and the case will no doubt be dropped.

Since the beginning of the last century no fewer than 52 volcanic islands have risen from the sea. Nineteen have since disappeared and ten are inhabited.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The assessment rolls for 1904, in the office of Comptroller Groom, showing the total assessed valuation of all real and personal property, including railroad and telegraph lines, in the State, gives Alachua county $4,598,504. The river Jordan has long been considered the most winding river in the world, but it is not in the same class as the White river in Arkansas. This river flows 1,000 miles in going thirty miles as the crow flies.

Authorship of Ancient Literature.
In the earliest examples we possess of ancient literature we are not allowed even a glimpse of the individualities of their authors. The works themselves, if they had been prized because of the wit, ingenuity, fertile fancy, brilliant conceit or any other individual peculiarity, mental or temperamental, of the men who produced them would have been preserved. In some cases, as in that of the Iliad and Odyssey, the reputed authorship has been as obstinately questioned as that of the fourth gospel and several of the epistles. In the very earliest literature the individual was of no account in the matter of authorship; he was only the collector or editor of spontaneous and unwritten folk song and legend or, if he gave these their final shape, was only joint author with his race.—H. M. Alden in Harper's Magazine.

The Biggest Shells.
The biggest shells are found on a large barrier reef of the Indian ocean, 1,200 miles long, east of Australia. Here the monsters come up on the rocks, which are almost inaccessible, and grow to weigh over 300 pounds. The Smithsonian has one of these bivalves in its collection which stands over three feet high. It has a saw tooth edge and inside a large muscle scar. The natives stand in as much fear of them as they do of a mad elephant, and many traditions are common among them of how arms and legs have been bitten off.

HEADACHE

"My father had been a sufferer from sick headache for the last twenty-five years and never found any relief until he began taking your Cascarets. Since he has begun taking Cascarets he has never had the headache. They have entirely cured him. Cascarets do what you recommend them to do. I will give you the privilege of using his name." E. M.
